

The Mission Society in conjunction with ClientWhys presents the 2018 Tax Reform and Update Seminar

November 15, 2018

Holiday Inn San Jose • 1350 North First Street, San Jose

It took over 30 years to get a major revamp of the tax code. Added complexity means a greater need for quality continuing education and support. The 2018 ClientWhys 8-hour live Tax Reform and Update Seminar is sure to impress. Tax laws change, as with that tax professionals need to guide clients through new strategies to maximize their financial return. From business entity selection, pass-through entity tax calculations, to employee/independent contractor issues, taxpayers need your advice more than ever. Choose our Total Practice program or seminar only. Total practice includes the live seminar and unlimited CPE, including our popular webcasts.

1. 1-day Live Seminar (3 hrs Fed Update plus 5 hrs of Fed Tax Subjects), including lunch.
2. The highly regarded Big Book of Taxes. Includes CA differences throughout. This year each attendee will be provided with a condensed printed version of the Big Book of Taxes for easier classroom study, a digital version of the full text for your computer, and new for this year, a tablet version of the full text. Those desiring a full 900-plus page printed version of the Big Book of Taxes may order one for an additional $75 plus applicable shipping and sales tax.
3. Monthly 1-Hour CE On-Demand Webcast with current changes and solutions to knotty problems encountered by our students—solutions to real-life tax issues. No exam, just attendance verification.
4. Access to the very popular ClientWhys Tax Forum, where you will get answers to your questions.
5. Unlimited CE from ClientWhys' library of self-study courses and webcasts (including a 2-hour ethics course and 5-hour CA differences course for those who need them for their annual CE requirement).

Price: $375 ($338 by June 1)

Where else can you get this much bang for your buck?

Only want to attend the Seminar? No problem, the seminar only package includes items 1,2 & 4 listed above
