Membership Meeting:
A HOLIDAY GALA! You dont want to miss!

Dear Membership,

The sun has shown bright for us here in Silicon Valley, so much that I have to pinch myself when looking at the new calendar page showing we are now in the month of December!

Mission Society is pleased to host a Holiday Gala this month. Social Committee has organized a wonderful event including Poached Salmon, Chicken Piccata, or Eggplant Parmesan for dinner, along with live music with The Cadillac Jack Band! Be sure to dress in your best and don't forget to wear your dancing shoes!

2018 Annual Cast-in-Concrete Presented by Claudia Hill, EA, MBA & Vicki Mulak, EA, CFP

Cast-in-Concrete

January 11, 2018

8:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Enrolled Agent opinions and concerns. During your legislative visits, you will have the opportunity to introduce yourself to legislators and their staff, and explain what Enrolled Agents are and what they do. You can also offer yourself as a tax expert resource to policymakers.

In addition to face-to-face meetings, Jim Stern Legislative Day participants will hear from knowledgeable Capitol speakers, observe law-making first-hand, and be able to network with fellow Members.

If you have any questions, please email Brian Pedersen or call 800-777-2732.

Morning Session 8:30am - 12:05pm

Vicki L Mulak, EA, CFP

2017 Tax Law Update for the CA Practitioner

This session will contrast and compare various aspects of Federal and California tax law, as it highlights the the most important changes for 2017. The comprehensive coverage of Federal and California legislation includes conformity and nonconformity issues.

Afternoon Session 12:55pm - 4:30pm

Claudia Hill, EA, MBT

2017 Tax Legislation - A Forms Based Approach

Tax preparation rules, practices and procedures change constantly. What better time than just prior to filing season to focus on the law changes, court cases, regulations and ruling that evolved during 2017. This session will also include a reminder of the ethical responsibilities and changes to representation guidance for both enrollees and other return preparers.
